5th Grade English
Summer Reading Nonfiction Book Report
Mrs. Fiedler

Name:______________________ Book Title:____________________________________

Date:_______________________ Author:_____________________________________

Subject: Describe who or what the book is about. Tell what you already knew about this subject before you read the book and what you hoped to learn from the book.

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

Main Points: List at least 5 main points in the book (ex. important events/people in a person's life, important events/people involved in a particular time in history)

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Fascinating Facts: Share at least 3 incredibly interesting facts you learned from this book.

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

Evaluation: In your opinion, is the subject of this book important? Give at least 3 reasons to support your answer.

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

CONTINUED
Connections: Good readers make personal connections with what they read. Good literature inspires those connections. Describe the connections you made with the subject of your book (ex. you and the subject share similar traits -give examples; the subject made you appreciate and/or view some aspect of your life in a different way; the subject inspired you to make a change in your life).

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________